Book of Judges Summary. Israel continues to conquer Canaan after the death of Joshua, but fails to completely drive out the Canaanites as God commanded. Those that remain behind turn Israel toward the worship of their idol gods (not those gods!), especially Baal and Ashteroth. That breaks Israel's covenant (not to mention hurts God's feelings), but God steps back and lets Israel learn from its mistakes, leaving them with no divine leader.

Judges Chapter 11. Verses 1-3: Despite Jephthah's background and his history of "vain men", God turned his situation, which would destroy most people, into a learning opportunity. The rejection "Jephthah" experienced during times of peace prepared him to be a leader when war was threatening. Neither bad choices nor the injustices done to a person must ever keep a child of God from completing God's calling.
