Café in Berlin is the first German book I've been able to make my way through, which is something I'm rather proud of. The ten short stories are less individual tales and more of a relatively cohesive narrative about an Italian man, named Dino, looking for work in Berlin. Each story is only a few pages in length and progress in di

Café in Berlin by André Klein - Goodreads

Café in Berlin is the book that started the Dino lernt Deutsch series, and it remains one of my most popular German story books to date. It has been an Amazon bestseller for many consecutive months, topping the charts in multiple categories, from German Language Instruction to General German Fiction and German Travel.

Café in Berlin is completely 'auf Deutsch' but spoken slowly which allows the listener to easily grasp what is being said. I've not had any lessons since secondary school (around 8yrs ago) but I was able to understand the majority of what was being said, at least enough to follow the story.
