Casa Moro is a London restaurant that has been doing very well for over a decade serving food inspired by the Muslim cuisines around the Mediterranean, think Spain, Morocco and Turkey. I love this kind of food, and being a decent cook myself and having lived in both Spain and Morocco for several years, I'm opinionated on the subject.

"Casa Moro," their second cookbook, is a very personal reflection on the Clarks' culinary influences. With its heady blend of Arabic and Hispanic dishes, the book evokes their early travels, their first discovery of Spain and Morocco, and the small village in the heart of Moorish Andalusia that has become their second home.
