RotMG pet abilities can be improved by feeding items to the pet; the feed power (FP) of the items are then applied towards the pet's abilities, improving them through "level-ups". Once suitably improved, two pets of the same tier can be fused together to create a pet of the next-higher tier (Common to Uncommon to Rare to Legendary to Divine).

Fusing Pets. If you have two common, uncommon, rare or legendary pets of the same type (two farm, aquatic, e.t.c.) you can fuse pets. When you fuse two common pets, they become an uncommon. It is recommended that you do this when your pet's abilities are at the maximum level.

The pet that you place on the left during fusion will determine which abilities the new pet will keep. Also, make sure you max all abilities of each pet before fusing it. Failure to do so will result in a lower stat cap and/or more feeding costs. Last edited by

According to the pet tool if I fuse 70/70 rare pet for 70/65 i will get legendary 70/67 pet. The exact same result is promised for 70/70 + 70/64 fusion. So I wonder, will the legendary pet get 67th level of 2nd ability partially maxed or will it be exactly at 0 (I mean, at the beginning of the 67th level)?

Upgrading your pet to uncommon, rare or anything else gets really expensive using fame. We must plan for it. For this guide I plan to upgrade my pet to Uncommon and max its second abilities over time. To make an uncommon pet you need 2 common pets at their max level. See my page Pets - Our Guardian Angels for more information.
