Monday in January, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service is the only federal holiday observed as a national day of service – a day on, not a day off. This day of service empowers individuals, strengthens communities, bridges barriers, addresses social problems, and moves us closer to Dr. King's vision of a Beloved Community.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

In his iconic speech at the Lincoln Memorial for the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom, King urged America to "make real the promises of democracy." King synthesized portions of his earlier speeches to capture both the necessity for change and the potential for hope in American society. I am happy to join with you today in what will go down in history as the greatest demonstration ...
