Isabel Beck's distinctions among three types (or tiers) of vocabulary words also is very helpful to consider in making choices of specific vocabulary to teach: Tier 1 words: These are very common words found across a wide range of texts. For a typical third grade class, Tier 1 vocabulary words might be words such as house, boy, jump, and yellow. Normally teachers would not want to target these kinds of words for vocabulary instruction, because most students would already know them.
